Duke Basset Hound

The Basset Hound is a distinctive dog breed known for its long ears, droopy eyes, and short legs. Originating in France, the breed was initially developed for hunting small game, such as rabbits, due to its exceptional sense of smell and tracking abilities. Basset Hounds are friendly, gentle, and good-natured, making them excellent family pets.

Our adorable Basset Hound is a charming representation of this beloved dog breed. It features the characteristic long ears that hang endearingly on either side of its face, and its expressive, soulful eyes will surely capture your heart.

The fur is incredibly soft, with a tricolour pattern of white, brown, and black patches that mimic the natural colouring of a Basset Hound. Its body is low and sturdy, with short legs, giving it a delightful and realistic appearance.

With its tail upright, this Basset Hound exudes a playful and friendly demeanour. Perfect for cuddling, it makes a comforting companion for both children and adults alike.

Koda Dachshund

This plush creation is an adorable and detailed representation of a Dachshund, capturing the breed's distinctive features with impressive accuracy. The elongated body and short legs closely mimic the characteristic shape of a real Dachshund, making it instantly recognisable. The luxuriously soft fur is predominantly deep black, contrasted by vibrant tan accents on the muzzle, eyebrows, feet, and above the eyes, enhancing its lifelike appearance.

The dog's glossy black eyes add a playful and endearing expression, while the soft, floppy ears contribute to its cuddly and approachable look. Every aspect of this plush Dachshund has been crafted with meticulous attention to detail, ensuring it is not only a delightful companion but also a faithful representation of the beloved breed.
